

NALS Foundation Purple Carpet Gala

A Star is Born! Or is that unborn?

The NALS Foundation will proudly host the “Purple Glob Awards” on Saturday, October 10, 2009 in Irvine, California (and California thinks they have problems now). Members, chapters and state associations, as well as regions have the opportunity to “dress” a Foundation Trustee, a NALS Board Member and even a NALS Past President (they’ve missed the fun) as a Star!

Don’t miss this once (thank goodness it’s only once) in a lifetime chance! Joan and Melissa Rivers are sure to “ooh” (what was she thinking when she put on that outfit?) and “ah” (a bad hair day looks 10 times better than she does!) over the fantabulous outfit of your favorite star as she struts her stuff on the Purple Carpet at the NALS Foundation Gala.

Stars (one of those people foolish enough to participate, but hey, it’s for a good cause) are limited. One forever stamp will allow you to forever be a part of history (what else would you call it?). Walk...don’t run (the NALS Foundation assumes no liability for injuries to you or the mailman as you rush to the nearest mailbox) and register to dress a NALS star of yesterday...today!
